

Outside Tigh Ui Ghormain the excellent restaurant a few yards up the road from Glaisebheag

Anyone interested in tendering for one of these prints should contact Orla Coyne, of Gerard O'Keeffe & Co., Solicitors, 7 Arran Quay, Dublin 7. There are three preliminary tenders of £1,000.00, £500.00, and £300.00. The prints have been executed at cost price by the well known fashion photographer Tony Higgins and will be framed by Mrs. Margo Lyons of Castleisland, whose late husband, Billy, was Gerard's first apprentice.

Gerard had generously invited an interesting group of people to lunch in Tigh Ui Ghormain, the excellent restaurant owned by Vincent and Sile O'Ghormain, which is just a few yards up the road from Glaisebheag, and it too, enjoys stunning views across the sea to the Three Sisters. Seosaimhin's brother-in-law, Micheal has brought his melodian, his friend brought his guitar and Paul Creighton, originally from Dublin but who now lives in Kerry and who is an expert on the history of the Dingle Peninsula also joins the party. As we sit down to lunch, Gerard asks Paul to sing a few songs. While we enjoy fine food and wine, Seosaimhin sings a hauntingly beautiful song, and Virginia, an English girl who has spent the last five months swimming with Fungi the dolphin, sings a whaling song. But perhaps the star of the show is Colm O'Ghormain who did a couple of fantastic jigs during the dessert course.